Please read through the terms and conditions before making the declaration by ticking the box. If you are unable to declare, please select contact us at your nearest CIMA office. You can find our contact details under 'contact us' at the bottom of the screen.

Before completing and submitting your application form you must notify CIMA of any disciplinary sanctions, or unspent convictions, you have sustained, or if you are subject to any order or undertaking relating to company directorship, bankruptcy, or any Individual Voluntary Arrangement with creditors. Such notification must be made by email to declarations@cimaglobal.com outlining the relevant circumstances, so that CIMA can assess these before your application can proceed any further.

If you have no such factors to notify, then please proceed with the following declaration:

DECLARATION

In connection with my application for admission as a registered student of the Institute I declare that

1. I have not been subject to a disciplinary sanction by any professional body, employer, tribunal, or education provider;
2. I have no unspent convictions;
3. I am not currently subject to an order or undertaking under the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 or subject to any similar restriction under legislation in another jurisdiction;
4. I am not currently subject to any bankruptcy restriction order or undertaking, Individual Voluntary Arrangement (IVA) involving payment of monies to creditors;
5. The particulars I have given in this application are correct and I recognise that if I am registered but later found to have provided untrue or misleading information in connection with this application I may be subject to disciplinary action and may be removed from the student register, regardless of any examinations and study completed.
6. Undertake, if registered, to comply with the Laws of the Institute, to uphold CIMA's professional standards and to comply with the Code of Ethics, adopting the

Congratulations, you have completed your first step to becoming a CIMA student. You now need to pay your outstanding amount within 6 weeks to complete your registration. If you decide to pay by bank draft, print this page off and send with your draft to:

CIMA
The Helicon
One South Place
London
EC2M 2RB
United Kingdom

Alternatively, if you decide to pay online by card after all, you will be able to log into your MYCIMA account within the next 6 weeks and pay online. Please keep a copy of this page for your records. You will also receive confirmation by email.

Once you have paid and are a CIMA student, we will be sending you emails with key information on how to get started and where to get useful study resources. At that stage you will also be able to download a copy of your welcome pack via your MY CIMA account.
